Comments from the President and CEO, Alf Göransson

“ In the USA, guarding operation margins are continuing to improve compared to the first half year last year, and Security Services Europe has improved its market position thanks to a high organic sales growth. Mobile and Monitoring continues to invest in sales resources in order to speed up the organic sales growth and expand its business geographically.

Securitas strategy for the future is now set. The three key elements in the strategy are a higher degree of specialization in the services provided to the customers driven by more customer segmentation, expansion of the Mobile and Monitoring concept and increased international presence.

Our financial objectives going forward will be an annual average increase in Earnings Per Share (EPS) of 10 percent and the financial stability target will be a free cash flow in relation to net debt of a minimum of 0.20.

Securitas, HSBC and Barclays have signed a Heads of Terms agreement regarding the intention of Securitas cash handling division Loomis to exit Loomis Cash Management (LCM) in the United Kingdom during the fourth quarter of 2007.

The first half year operating result has been burdened by the difficulties in the Loomis UK cash management operation. In addition, it has also come to the attention of management that for some time LCM has been making declarations that did not comply with the Note Circulation Rules in the United Kingdom. Loomis has made a provision of MSEK 206. This is an estimate and the value will be finally determined during the second half of 2007.”

SECURITAS STRATEGY FOR THE FUTURE

The three key elements in Securitas future strategy are a higher degree of specialization, expansion of the Mobile and Monitoring concept and an increased international presence.

The management's belief is that continued specialization, rather than diversification, will improve margins, growth, customer value and the quality of the security services provided.

The first steps have already been taken in 2006 by the listing of Securitas Systems AB and Securitas Direct AB. The Mobile and Monitoring activities, focusing on small and mid-sized customers, are as of January 1, 2007 fully operating as separate divisions, thus improving the focus on this segment which is expected to result in accelerated growth. The cash handling activity, Loomis, is planned to be listed in 2008.

Security Services in Europe and North America have decided to step by step move from a geographically market driven organization to a gradually more customer segment driven organization. The strong functional line of command and the culture of decentralized profitability responsibility will remain even if branch offices, where market penetration allows and justifies it, will be specialized by customer segments. Evidence of that specialization results in improved margins and higher growth is already documented in a number of countries in Europe.

The pace and degree of specialization will vary from country to country, however in all markets Securitas will in addition to the segmentation strategy also increase investments in and focus on competence, differentiation, security tools and solutions and web based support systems.

In Mobile and Alert Services the prime focus will be on growth by acquisitions and investments in the sales force. The investment in New Markets will continue, with acquisitions primarily in Latin America, India and China as the first step in building a larger global footprint supporting global contracts with major customers.

The result of the strategy is expected to level out the long term trend of declining gross margins, and as sophistication levels develop also gradually improve operating margins. It is also expected that improved quality in services will provide customers with added values and thus allowing Securitas to improve employee conditions, resulting in improved guard status and lower employee turnover.

Securitas will continue to use the established financial framework for measuring financial performance. Externally the focus will be on the development of two financial objectives, being

- A financial performance target – an annual average increase in Earnings Per Share (EPS) of 10 percent.
- A financial stability target – the free cash flow in relation to net debt of a minimum of 0.20.

DEVELOPMENT IN THE GROUP

Sales and Income for the Group April – June 2007

Sales amounted to MSEK 15,583 (15,026). Organic sales growth was 4 percent (6). Focus on “profitability first – volume second” in the US guarding operation has slowed down the organic sales growth rate. In Loomis, the organic sales growth has been burdened by the loss of a major contract in Sweden and slow growth in the United Kingdom and the USA.

Operating income before amortization was MSEK 783 (829), which adjusted for changes in exchange rates was a decrease by 3 percent compared to the second quarter 2006. The main reason for the decrease is related to Loomis and primarily explained by the LCM difficulties. LCM explains MSEK -55 of the MSEK -68 that Loomis is behind previous year second quarter operating income.

The operating margin was 5.0 percent (5.5).

Revaluation of financial instruments amounted to MSEK 4 (-8).

Financial income and expense amounted to MSEK -138 (-151).

Income before taxes of MSEK 403 (258) was impacted negatively by MSEK 13 related to Loomis re-branding costs. The second quarter has been burdened by a provision of MSEK 206 due to that LCM for some time has been making declarations that did not comply with the Note Circulation Rules in the United Kingdom. This is an estimate and the value will be finally determined during the second half 2007. Last year items affecting comparability amounted to MSEK -389 and consisted of Welo in Germany and costs related to the listings of Securitas Systems AB and Securitas Direct AB.

The Group’s tax rate was 113.0 percent (31.1). Adjusted for tax on items affecting comparability the tax rate was 34.4 percent. The tax on these items includes a write down of a deferred tax asset concerning the uncertainty of use of tax losses due to the exit of the LCM business in the UK. The underlying tax rate was 25.2 percent adjusted for a revaluation charge of deferred tax assets regarding tax losses due to German and Danish tax reforms. The tax rate of 31.1 percent in 2006 includes tax effects from items affecting comparability of approximately 5 percentage points.

The net income was MSEK -53 (178). Earnings per share was SEK -0.14 (0.48).

Earnings per share before items affecting comparability was SEK 1.12 (1.53).

Sales and Income for the Group January – June 2007

Sales amounted to MSEK 30,800 (29,973). Organic sales growth was 5 percent (6), and the slow down compared to last year is explained by the same reasons as the decrease during the second quarter.

Operating income before amortization was MSEK 1,606 (1,638), which adjusted for changes in exchange rates was an increase by 2 percent compared to the first half 2006. LCM explains MSEK -76 of the MSEK -100 that Loomis is behind previous year first half year operating income.

The operating margin was 5.2 percent (5.5).

Revaluation of financial instruments amounted to MSEK 3 (-10).

Financial income and expense amounted to MSEK -266 (-270).

Income before taxes of MSEK 1,097 (913) was positively impacted by MSEK 50 related to the settlement of the Globe/Federal Aviation Administration dispute in the USA and negatively impacted by MSEK 39 related to Loomis re-branding costs and by a provision of MSEK 206 due to that LCM for some time has been making declarations that did not comply with the Note Circulation Rules in the United Kingdom.

The Group's tax rate was 57.6 percent (31.1). Adjusted for tax on items affecting comparability the tax rate was 29.4 percent. The tax on these items includes a write down of a deferred tax asset concerning the uncertainty of use of tax losses due to the exit of the LCM cash management business in the UK. The underlying tax rate was 25.0 percent adjusted for a revaluation charge of deferred tax assets regarding tax losses due to German and Danish tax reforms. The tax rate of 31.1 percent in 2006 includes tax effects from items affecting comparability of approximately 5 percentage points.

The net income was MSEK 465 (629). Earnings per share was SEK 1.27 (1.72).

Earnings per share before items affecting comparability was SEK 2.50 (2.78).

Security Services North America provides specialized guarding services in the three countries of the North American continent: Canada, USA and Mexico. The division consists of one organization for National and Global Accounts; 10 geographical regions and three specialty regions (Automotive, Government Services and Energy) in the USA; plus Canada, Mexico and Pinkerton Consulting & Investigations. All in all, there are about 100 areas, over 600 branch offices and more than 100,000 employees.

Security Services North America has service offering in all segments in nearly every industry.

April – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 3 percent in the second quarter. The continuous focus on profitability, rather than volume, explains that the growth is lower than during the second quarter 2006.

The operating margin was 5.1 percent, which is a slight improvement from the second quarter last year. The operating margin in new sales is improving compared to the opening customer portfolio. During the second quarter, there has been a settlement regarding a four year old labour case, in Pinkerton Consulting & Investigations, which has affected the operating margin negatively. The settlement amounts to MSEK -12.

January – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 4 percent in the first half 2007, compared to 6 percent for the same period last year.

The operating margin was 5.0 percent. The improvement in operating margin is primarily driven by improved gross margin in the US guarding operations, in line with the strategy.

Client retention rate remained over 90 percent. The employee turnover increased with about 3 percent to 72 percent compared to last year, due to the continuation of the labour market improving in the USA.

Security Services Europe

January – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 8 percent in the first half 2007, which is a positive development compared with 6 percent for the same period last year. Strong organic sales growth was seen in markets such as Norway, Denmark, Spain, Belgium and the Netherlands, while the German market continued to be difficult.

Aviation security is continuing to show double digit organic sales growth, mainly supported by the Arlanda and Bromma contract in Sweden that started in February 2007 with a total contract value of approximately MSEK 1,000 over five years.

The operating margin was 5.3 percent in the first half 2007, compared to 5.4 percent in the first half of last year. Adjusted for the impact of last year's repayment of pension premiums from FORA AB in Sweden amounting to MSEK 12, the margin remains flat. Operating income showed a real change of 10 percent in the period.

There is continued pressure on the price level within Security Services Europe. The employee turnover was 37 percent, compared to 36 percent last year.

Mobile is operating in 11 countries across Europe and has 8,700 employees in 34 regions and 274 branch offices.

Monitoring provides electronic alarm surveillance, and operates under the brand name of Alert Services. Its core business is to provide independent alarm, security and safety monitoring services for both homes and businesses. Alert Services is operating in eight countries across Europe and has 750 employees.

April – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 7 percent in the second quarter, which is 4 percentage points higher than in the second quarter 2006. Mobile has a clear focus on building a stronger and larger sales force in order to drive new sales and organic sales growth.

The operating margin was 10.9 percent (12.6) and has been impacted by the costs for the build up of the sales organization and start up of new mobile routes.

January – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 7 percent for the first half 2007, compared to 3 percent for the same period last year, contributed by the Mobile growth strategy including the expansion of the sales organization.

The operating margin was 11.2 percent, compared to 12.4 percent 2006, and has been impacted by the costs for investments in sales and marketing.

Loomis

Loomis offers a complete range of integrated cash handling solutions and has a strong market position in the USA and in western Europe. Services are primarily targeted on central banks, commercial banks, retail chains and shops. Loomis provides customers with a secure and efficient service for cash handling.

Services are divided into three areas: Cash transport, Cash handling and Technical services.

Loomis is a separate legal entity within the Securitas Group.

Late 2006 the division started its re-branding from Securitas Cash Handling Services to Loomis, which is the brand name for all operations in Europe and in the USA.

Securitas plans to list Loomis on the OMX Nordic Exchange. Due to the development in the UK cash handling operation, Loomis Cash Management (LCM), the listing is planned to take place during 2008 as previously announced.

April – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 0 percent, compared to 6 percent in the second quarter 2006.

The operating margin was 4.8 percent, which is 2.3 percentage points lower than in the second quarter 2006. LCM explains MSEK -55 of the MSEK -68 that Loomis is behind previous year second quarter operating income.

January – June 2007

The organic sales growth was 1 percent for the first half year 2007, compared to 6 percent the same period 2006. The decrease is mainly explained by lower organic sales growth rates in the USA and the United Kingdom. In Sweden the volumes are reduced due to the loss of the Swedbank contract in the first quarter 2007.

The operating margin was 5.1 percent the first half 2007, compared to 6.7 percent for the first half year 2006. The reduced operating margin is a consequence of losses in the Danish cash handling operation, difficulties to compensate cost increases in various countries and higher cost of risk in the United Kingdom. The problems in LCM in the United Kingdom are affecting the operating margin for the period and LCM explains MSEK -76 of the MSEK -100 that Loomis is behind previous year first half year operating income. Measures are taken and action plans are implemented in order to turn the negative trend in margins.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

Esabe

The final settlement has been signed by all parties and has been submitted to the relevant Spanish court for its approval. A provision for the settlement amount was established as of December 31, 2006.

Globe/Federal Aviation Administration

This dispute has been settled during the first quarter 2007.

Brazil

In connection with the efforts of Securitas to expand its activities in South America, Securitas entered into an agreement in 2005 with respect to a possible acquisition of a Security guard company in Brazil. In order to support this company, Securitas provided a bank guarantee for the benefit of the subject company. Securitas has fulfilled its obligations under the bank guarantee during the first quarter 2007. A provision for the full amount of the bank guarantee was established as of December 31, 2006.

The subject company has since filed for protection from its creditors under Brazilian legislation providing for a judicial restructuring process. In connection with the commencement of this judicial restructuring process, the Brazilian guard company has asserted a claim against Securitas alleging that Securitas is responsible for the subject company's failure. In addition, a number of employees who claim to be owed wages have named Securitas in addition to other parties in pending labor suits. Securitas management believes that these claims are without merit.

Spain – overtime compensation

All major security companies in Spain have been compensating their employees in respect of overtime work in accordance with a labor agreement covering the period 2005 to 2008. In February 2007, the Spanish Supreme Court ruled that the method of calculating overtime compensation under the existing labour agreement was not in compliance with Spanish law. This ruling did not provide guidance as to how the overtime calculations should be made and as a result the security companies sought guidance from the Supreme Court on this issue. In April 2007, the Supreme Court ruled that it would not provide any further guidance on this issue. As a result, the security companies have filed a petition with a lower court seeking specific guidance as to how such overtime compensation should be calculated. Given the lack of judicial guidance in this area, it is not possible at this time to have a reliable estimate of the amount of additional compensation which will need to be paid. Ongoing discussions are being conducted with the relevant labour unions in an effort to resolve this matter. If this matter is not resolved, the possible exposure could be in the range of MEUR 20 to 30.

Loomis Cash Management Ltd. (LCM)

On July 25, 2007, Securitas, HSBC and Barclays signed a Heads of Terms agreement regarding the intention of Loomis to exit the LCM cash handling services that it provides to the two banks in the United Kingdom. The Heads of Terms contemplate that the exit will occur during the fourth quarter 2007.

Securitas and the banks have agreed that the intention is for Loomis to transfer the part of the business relating to management of cash for HSBC and Barclays back to those banks. The Heads of Terms contemplate, that the LCM business will continue unchanged until the exit date, and that the transfer will be completed without any interruption of services to customers.

Loomis and Securitas continue their ongoing internal investigation into the historic variances and additional stock takes are planned before the exit. No changes in the provision of MGBP 61 (MSEK 824), established as of December 31, 2006, has been deemed justified. The final results of the additional stock takes will be known during the second half 2007.

During Loomis' work to improve its internal controls and cut-off processes in the cash handling services of LCM, it came to the attention of management during the second quarter 2007 that for some time LCM had been making declarations that did not comply with the Note Circulation Rules (NCS Rules) in the United Kingdom. In particular, the value of notes eligible for declaration under the NCS Rules appears to have been overstated. One important consequence is that any overstatement could reduce LCM's financing costs.

Both Securitas AB and the Bank of England have launched investigations into the extent and consequences of declarations made by LCM. KPMG has been retained for its investigation. As required under the NCS Rules, Loomis will pay the costs of this investigation. Securitas AB has also indemnified the Bank of England against these costs as well as the potential loss of interest and contractual penalties that it is entitled to claim as a direct result of this matter.

The investigations are expected to be completed during the second half 2007, after which time it will be possible to determine Loomis' liability and the total amount of any sums payable as a result.

Securitas AB has made a provision of MGBP 15 (MSEK 206), in respect of monies that it may owe in connection with LCM's membership of the Note Circulation Scheme and the costs of the investigation. This is an estimate and the value will be finally determined during the second half 2007.

LCM will cease to be a member of the Note Circulation Scheme in the United Kingdom once the business has been taken over by Barclays and HSBC, as announced on July 26, 2007.

For further background information regarding items affecting comparability and contingent liabilities refer to the published Annual Report for 2006.

Securitas Employee Convertible series 1-4 2002/2007

The conversion period for the four convertible loans, issued by Securitas to Securitas Employee Convertible 2002 Holding in Luxembourg in May 2002, ended on April 18, 2007. The loans amounted to MEUR 254,497,500 corresponding to 14,555,657 new series B-shares in Securitas AB. No conversion has taken place and the loans were fully paid back on May 2, 2007. Securitas Employee Convertible 2002 Holding is now as planned under liquidation.

New syndicated loan facility

In May, Securitas signed a three year MEUR 550 Multi-Currency Term Loan Facility. The Mandated Lead Arrangers and Bookrunners were BNP Paribas, Citi, The Royal Bank of Scotland and SEB. The Facility will be used for refinancing of expiring committed financing as well as for general corporate purposes. The syndication was oversubscribed having been launched at MEUR 450.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Risks in connection with Securitas ongoing operations fall into two main categories, operational risks and financial risks. Operational risks are managed with a decentralized approach in the local operations and the financial risks are managed centrally in the Group's Treasury Centre. In addition to this there are also certain risks connected to the acquisitions made by the Group.

Operational Risks

Operational risks are risks associated with the day to day operations and the services provided to the customers. These risks may arise when services provided do not meet the required standards and result in loss of property, damage to property or bodily injury. Securitas uses a business risk evaluation model to assess these types of operational risks on an ongoing basis. The model is described in the published Annual Report for 2006 on pages 28 and 29.

Another operationally related risk which may impact profitability is the risk that Securitas will not be able to increase prices to the customers in order to compensate fully for the increases in wages and related costs.

Financial Risks

Financial risks arise because the Group has external financing needs and operates in a number of foreign currencies. The risks are mainly:

- Interest rate risk
- Foreign currency risks
- Financing risk
- Credit/Counterparty risk

The management of these risks is described in Note 6 in the published Annual Report for 2006.

Acquisition Risks

The Group has made a significant number of acquisitions over the years and will as part of the strategy continue to acquire security companies. Although the Group has demonstrated in the past the ability to successfully integrate acquired businesses the integration of new companies always carries certain risks. The profitability of the acquired company can be lower than expected or certain costs in connection with the acquisition can be higher than expected.

Items affecting comparability

For the forthcoming six-month period the financial impact of certain items affecting comparability, i.e. the disputes regarding Brazil, Spain and LCM, described in the section Other Significant Events in this report, might vary from the current financial estimates and provisions made by management thereby affecting the profitability of the Group.

The preparation of financial reports requires the Board of Directors and Group Management to make estimates and judgements. Estimates and judgements will impact both the statement of income and the balance sheet as well as disclosures such as contingent liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates and judgements under different assumptions and conditions. For further information regarding estimates and judgements refer to Note 4 in the published Annual Report for 2006.

REVIEW REPORT

We have reviewed the interim report for Securitas AB (publ.) for the period January 1 to June 30, 2007. The Board of Directors and the President and CEO are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34 and the Annual Accounts Act. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

We conducted our review in accordance with the Standard on Review Engagements SÖG 2410, Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity issued by FAR. A review consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Standards on Auditing in Sweden RS and other generally accepted auditing practices. The procedures performed in a review do not enable us to obtain a level of assurance that would make us aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Therefore, the conclusion expressed based on a review does not give the same level of assurance as a conclusion expressed based on an audit.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial information is not, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 and the Annual Accounts Act.
